

Trojans get to enjoy rare breather

After all the lacrosse battles Homer Central boys have been in so far this season, it was nice to have this Monday breather.

The Trojans opened the week rolling past Manlius-Pebble Hill by a 16-3 margin in a non-league contest, the outcome never in doubt after the Butts Field hosts struck for 10 goals in the opening stanza. Coach Tom Cottrell's stickers got goals from nine different players while improving to 6-3 overall.

"We had hoped to go out and play as well as we could regardless of the competition and I felt we did that," said Coach Cottrell after keeping Manlius-Pebble Hill win-less through seven games.

Connor Ferrito and Bennett Quinlan both had three goals and an assist in this offensive show, while Carl Zimmerman also had a three-goal hat trick. Aaron Darr scored twice, John Scierra had three assists to go along with a goal and Luke Pedersen picked up a pair of assists and also scored.

Kyle Davis, Cody Sandy and Brett

Stokoe also netted goals — Stokoe's first varsity tally — as the busiest player was Manlius-Pebble Hill goalie Joel Urist who came up with 21 saves. Alex Urist had two of the three goals for the visitors.

Homer hosts unbeaten LaFayette Thursday at Butts Field, a 7:15 start.
